

Impact100 SRQ Announces Record-Breaking $663,000 Total for 2022 Giving Year

The organization will fund fund six grants to nonprofits in each of five focus area categories.

By Staff

March 10, 2022

Impact100 SRQ's "Big Reveal" event was held at the Nathan Benderson Finishing Tower.

Image: Courtesy Photo

Impact100 SRQ announced its 2022 Giving Year grant impact for Sarasota and Manatee Counties at its annual "Big Reveal" event. This year, the local women's organization announced it will fund six grants to nonprofits in each of five focus area categories: arts and culture, education, environment and recreation, family, and health and wellness. Each of the organization's members donated $1,000 for a total of $663,000.

The next phase of the Giving Year started March 9, with the opening of the online grant application process for nonprofit organizations. After completing a required eligibility form, nonprofits are invited to submit an application for a $110,500 grant. Click here to apply or to learn more about past grant recipients.

In the four years since its inception, Impact100 SRQ will have funded 15 grants and donated $1,637,000 to local nonprofits.

Filed under